

Employees must be able to perform the essential job functions. An employee is responsible for reporting to his or her immediate supervisor any injury or medical condition that interferes with the ability to perform the essential functions of the employee's job. Employees are directed to contact Leaves and ADA Management

i s 0 Td ()Tj -0.055